

Professor

Chandra Marciano
Piano

Professor Marciano began classical piano lessons at age 5, quickly working her way up the classical music repertoire and participating in many musical festivals and competitions all over the state of Ohio and as far away as Kingston, Ontario, Canada as a participant in the Suzuki Music Festival.

The Professor has won numerous first place ribbons and trophies in events such as Ohio Music Teacher Association Ribbon Festival, National Federation of Music Clubs, and multiple college scholarship offers.

Moving from Ohio to Miami, FL to pursue a music degree at the University of Miami, she further developed her piano skills under the tutelage of Tian Ying and is a proud graduate of the University of Miami Frost School of Music with a Bachelor's Degree in Music Business & Entertainment Industries/Classical Piano and a minor in Marketing.

Upon graduation in May 2006, Professor Marciano was hired by Steinway & Sons as an Institutional salesperson in their Coral Gables factory location: Steinway Piano Gallery Miami. She currently holds the positions of Gallery Administrator and Concert & Artist event rental coordinator.

Still an accomplished pianist who enjoys playing for friends and church, Professor Marciano has recently felt called to share her gift of music with others through the art of teaching. She is currently expanding her private studio to share her twenty years of experience and love of music through the development of her students' gifts. Stage Masters Music is proud to have Professor Marciano on staff as a Senior Professor.
