

Professor

Marianela Castro
Piano

Education: Born and raised in Havana Cuba, Prof. Castro studied for 5 years in the Conservatorio Amadeo Roldan, Havana, Cuba. Her studies continued another five years in the Escuela Nacional de Arte where she graduated as a Music Professor. Prof. Castro began teaching at the age of 18 at the Escuela Nacional de Adultos in the Alejandro Garcia Caturla Conservatory in Havana, Cuba.

Experience: Prof. Castro arrived in Miami in 1987 where she began working as a piano accompanist and piano teacher at Ballet Concerto. She has continued as a private piano teacher and accompanist at Ballet Etude; Martha Mahr Academy; Boca Ballet Theatre; Aventura Dance Academy; and the Dance Department at New World School of the Arts at Florida International University. Prof. Castro has also performed as a pianist and percussionist in various orchestras such as the Hollywood Symphonic Orchestra; the Hallandale Symphonic Orchestra and the Coral Springs Symphonic Orchestra and Grupo Lirico of Miami. She currently teaches piano on a private level to students of all ages and serves as an accompanist at the Miami City Ballet.

