

Professor

Viviana R. Diaz
Piano

Education:

1990-2000 - Migdalia Medina Piano Academy, Miami, Florida; National Guild of Piano Teachers & The American College of Musicians High School Diploma in Social Music Superior Plus.

2007-2008 - Technical Career Institute, Miami, Florida: Diploma of Pharmacy Technician.

Experience:

1994-Present - As a Private Piano Teacher, Professor Diaz teaches private lessons to both adults and children in preparation for the National Guild of Piano Teacher's National Piano-Playing Auditions held annually at the University of Miami, Miami, Florida. Her experience ranges from preparing students for competitions, concerts and individual recitals to dealing with the intricacies of music studios, parents, lessons payments, etc.

2004 - Substitute Music Teacher at the Christian Learning Center, Miami, Florida working with children from Pre-Kinder through 5th grade teaching music theory.
1998: Taught private piano lessons at the Migdalia Medina Piano Academy, Miami, Florida.

Memberships:

Active Member of The National Guild of Piano Teachers and Teacher Division of the American College of Musicians with placement on the Honor Roll of the Piano Guild of Teachers for 15 years. Prof. Diaz is now an Active Member of the Stage Masters Music Competition Association.